TI-CMC letter of commitment

Section 1502 of the US Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act effective on July 21st 2010 defines ‘Conflict Minerals’ as including ‘cassiterite and its derivatives’ along with two other minerals and gold. Chongyi Zhangyuan Tungsten Co., Ltd. generally supports the objectives of this law and has no link between mining and conflict in the eastern Provinces of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), and recognize the disclosure requirements which this law imposes on SEC reporting companies in the US.

We, Chongyi Zhangyuan Tungsten Co.,Ltd. will work cooperatively with organizations and agencies such as Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), EICC/GeSI, Tungsten Industry Conflict Materials Council ( TI-CMC), International Tin Research Institute (ITRI), and International Conference on the Great Lakes Region (ICGLR) to establish credible and effective processes that isolate and eliminate non-ethical tungsten mining and trade, and allow continuation
